

Chairman of Urology, DHMC

History of Urology at Dartmouth

Benjamin W. Herrick MD, John A. Heaney MD, William Bihrlé III MD

Dr. John P. Bowler (1924-1946)

- 1924 Urology was born at DHMC. Dr. Bowler moves home to Hanover, NH from the Mayo Clinic
- Creates the Hitchcock Clinic, modeled after the Mayo Clinic
- Dr. Bowler completed a surgical residency and one year of urology training
- Among other things, he became a leading expert of transurethral surgery

Dr. William L. McLaughlin (1946-1960)

- Urology at Squire Urologic Clinic, Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center and Fellowship at the Mayo Clinic
- 1946 VAMC at White River Junction taken over by Dartmouth Medical School
- 1949 DHMC granted a 2-yr Urology Residency program
- 1952 Dr. Lawrence Morin was first graduate from DHMC Urology residency program
- 1953 a third year was added to program

Resident Graduates: Lawrence Morin '52, George Files '54, Robert Clifton '56, Albert Fergosi '57, Chandra Singh '57, John Lanni '60, Dale Fardelmann '60

Dr. Lawrence J. Morin (1960-1982)

- Residency completed at DHMC 1952
- 1960 Expanded residency to VAMC, chief resident operated independently, Morin checked-up on resident twice a week.
- 1972 Urology staff made professors of Dartmouth Medical School
- 1972 Norris Cotton Cancer Center dedicated

Resident Graduates: Charles Henninger '61, John Rose '63, Alexander Mc Burney '65, Joseph Stevens '66, David Albright '67, Leroy Henrich '68, Bryant Barnard '69, Robert Welke '70, James Shula '71, Richard Zuerner '72, Stefan Loening '73, Joseph Bohan '74, Douglas Norman '75, Robert Strimer '76, Stephen Tosi '77, James Bright '78, Arthur Turton '79, David Poplawski '80, Robert Bennett '81

Dr. W. Scott McDougal (1982-1984)

- Urology residency completed at Case Western and Fellowship at Yale
- Brought a research emphasis to Urology program
- Left to become Chairman of Urology at Vanderbilt Medical Center and then Chairman of MGH

Resident Graduates: Robert Brenner '82, John Koonce '83, Jeffery Troxell '84, John Ledbetter '85

Dr. John A. Heaney (1986-2003)

- Urology Residency competed at MGH
- 1986 residency program became a 4 year program
- 1991 hired first pediatric Urologist and continued hiring staff of fellowship trained Urologists

Resident Graduates: William Castle '86, Robert Bohus '87, John Russell '88, Thomas Williams '89, David Albala '90, Anthony Saracino '91, Eirikur Jonsson '92, George Seremetis '93, Pamela Ellsworth '94, David Chavez '95, John Williams '96, Samuel Hakim '97, Michael Curtis '98, David Cozzolino '99, Lori Lerner '00, Lars Ellison '01, John Munoz '02, Joseph Lopes '03

Dr. William Bihrlé, III (2003-present)

- Urology Residency completed at the Lahey Clinic
- 2006 resident program expanded to 2 residents per year
- Concord Urology Group becomes part of resident education

Resident Graduates: Mark Edney '04, Tony Donaldson '05, Matt Thomas '05, Thomas Schwab '06, Sean Corbett '06, Catherine Schwender '07, Kwabena Pobi '08, Curtis Crane '08, Peter Steinberg '09, Michael Van Bibber '10, Vanessa Gulla '10, Brian Kowal '11, Shaun Wason '11

William Bihrlé, III MD
Chairman

John Heaney, MD

Daniel Herz, MD

Kelley Lemay-Hamill, APRN

David Barrett, MD

E. Ann Gormley, MD
Resident Director

Bridget Logan, APRN

Leslie McQuiston, MD

John Seigne, MB

Elias Hyams

Paul Mergerian, MD

Vernon Pao Jr., MD

Rodney Taylor, MD
Section Chief

William Bihrlé, MD

Vernon Pao Jr., MD

E. Ann Gormley, MD

Scott Fabozzi, MD

David Green, MD

Ronald Yap, MD
Resident Coordinator

Veronica Trisca, MD

Thomas Jackson, MD

Robert Mitchell, MD

William Santis, MD

Paul Snyder, MD